

Azerbaijan uses custom-made explosion-proof distribution boxes

Article Overview

Azerbaijan uses custom-made explosion-proof distribution boxes designed for hazardous environments, meeting international safety standards such as ATEX and IECEx.

Overview

Explosion-proof distribution boxes are specialized electrical enclosures designed to prevent ignition of flammable gases, vapors, or dust in hazardous areas. These boxes are commonly used in oil and gas facilities, chemical plants, refineries, and offshore platforms, which are prevalent in Azerbaijan's energy sector . They are engineered to withstand extreme temperatures, corrosive environments, and mechanical impacts while ensuring safe power distribution and control.

Customization and Materials

These distribution boxes are custom-made to order, allowing internal components such as switches, circuit breakers, voltmeters, and ammeters to be arranged according to specific operational needs . Materials commonly used include stainless steel (AISI 304L or 316L), aluminum, and high-grade plastics, providing durability and corrosion resistance . Some models also feature GRP (Glass Reinforced Polyester) enclosures for lightweight and flexible configurations .
