

China Integrated Distribution Box Suppliers

Article Overview

China offers a wide range of integrated distribution box suppliers, including SKYT, CHYT, OOHMAGE, and other manufacturers providing customizable, high-quality electrical distribution solutions.

Leading Suppliers

1. SKYT / Shouke® SKYT is a prominent manufacturer of integrated distribution boxes in China. Their products integrate multiple electrical functions, including power distribution, control, protection, and monitoring. SKYT boxes come with pre-installed components such as circuit breakers, surge protectors, and energy meters, reducing installation time and labor costs. They offer tailored solutions for residential, commercial, and industrial applications, ensuring compatibility with specific power loads and environments. Their technicians are trained and certified to meet national safety standards, making SKYT a reliable supplier for high-quality, durable products .

2. CHYT / ICHYTI CHYT specializes in distribution boxes and plastic-sealed protective enclosures. With a factory area of 2,700 square meters and advanced production equipment, CHYT offers nearly 3,000 product varieties across 39 series. They focus on customization, small batches, and precision machining, providing solutions for smart cities, smart factories, and industrial applications. Their products include MCCB enclosures, solar photovoltaic components, and intelligent power systems. CHYT emphasizes high-quality manufacturing, international standards compliance, and long-term reliability .

3. OOHMAGE OOHMAGE is known for precision-engineered electrical distribution boxes suitable for residential, commercial, and industrial systems. Their...
