

GFRP Glass Cable Reinforcing Core Manufacturer

Article Overview

Leading GFRP manufacturers include Owens Corning, Jushi Group, PPG Industries, CPIC, Taishan Fiberglass, and Dextra Group, offering high-strength, lightweight, and corrosion-resistant solutions for industrial and construction applications.

Top Global Manufacturers

Owens Corning is a global leader in glass fiber technology, producing GFRP materials for construction, transportation, and industrial applications. Their ADVANTEX® and PerforMax® glass fibers are recognized for high performance and sustainability . Jushi Group is the world's largest glass fiber producer, manufacturing over 2 million tons annually. They supply high-performance composites for infrastructure, transportation, and industrial sectors . PPG Industries operates an extensive fiberglass production network, focusing on aerospace, automotive, and industrial markets. They emphasize sustainable materials and advanced composite solutions . CPIC (China) is a major supplier for wind energy, automotive, and aerospace applications, with production bases in multiple countries . Taishan Fiberglass (Sinoma) provides GFRP for construction, industrial composites, and thermal insulation, operating one of Asia's most automated production facilities . Dextra Group specializes in GFRP rebar and composite reinforcement for concrete, marine, and tunnel applications. Established in 1983, they operate in over 55 countries and have been involved in more than 20,000 major projects worldwide .
