

Moroccan Integrated Optical Cable Manufacturer

Article Overview

FBR Cables, INESKONECT, FiberCorp, and Nexans Morocco are leading integrated optical cable manufacturers in Morocco.

FBR Cables

FBR Cables is a fully Moroccan-owned company specializing in high-performance fiber optic cables for indoor, outdoor, aerial, and FTTH networks . Founded in 1991 in Bouskoura, the company recently inaugurated a new industrial unit in Berrechid, consolidating operations on a 15,000 m² site with an annual production capacity of 70,000 kilometers of fiber optic cables, covering nearly 60% of domestic demand . FBR Cables supplies major telecom operators such as Orange Maroc, INWI, and Maroc Telecom, and emphasizes quality, environmental responsibility, and occupational safety . The company also provides copper LAN cables (Cat6 to Cat8) and offers technical support throughout project lifecycles .

INESKONECT

INESKONECT, manufactured by INES, is a Moroccan brand focused on FTTH and telecom solutions . With over 43 years of expertise, INES has developed high-quality fiber optic products for the national market and expanded to African and European markets . The company emphasizes innovative solutions, fast and reliable connectivity, and partnerships with major operators and installers, making it a key player in Morocco's high-speed internet infrastructure
