

Nepal Fiber Optic KVM Brand Manufacturer

Article Overview

In Nepal, fiber optic KVM solutions are primarily supplied by distributors like Technovate International, Eman Communications, and ICT Distribution, often importing products from global manufacturers such as PROSE Technologies.

Key Suppliers and Distributors

Technovate International Pvt. Ltd. Established in 2017, Technovate provides end-to-end fiber optic products and telecommunication equipment to ISPs and cable operators in Nepal. They import goods directly from partner manufacturers abroad, ensuring quality and after-sales support for fiber optic solutions, which may include KVM systems for data centers and network management . Eman Communications Pvt. Ltd. Eman Communications stocks high-performance fiber optic cables and accessories, including 6 & 12 core optical fiber cables. While primarily focused on cabling, they also provide related infrastructure components that support fiber optic KVM deployment . ICT Distribution (PROSE Technologies) ICT Distribution is a premier distributor of PROSE Technologies' data center products in Nepal. PROSE specializes in structured cabling, fiber-optic solutions, network cabinets, and accessories. Through ICT Distribution, businesses in Nepal can access fiber optic KVM switches and related infrastructure, benefiting from global engineering standards and local support .
