

Pz Distribution Box Manufacturing Standards

Article Overview

PZ30 distribution boxes are manufactured according to international and national low-voltage switchgear standards, ensuring safety, reliability, and modular functionality.

Key Standards and Compliance

PZ30 distribution boxes comply with international standards such as IEC61439, IEC60439-1, and IEC60670, which govern low-voltage switchgear and controlgear assemblies, ensuring proper electrical performance, safety, and durability. They also meet Chinese national standards including GB/T7251 and GB/T24274, which specify requirements for low-voltage complete and withdrawable switchgear and control equipment, guaranteeing consistent protection against overload, short circuit, overvoltage, and leakage .

Material and Construction Requirements

- Enclosure Material: High-quality cold-rolled steel or hot-dip galvanized steel for corrosion resistance, often coated with thermosetting epoxy polyester powder for durability and aesthetic finish .
- Protection Ratings: Typically IP30 to IP40, providing protection against accidental contact and solid objects, with IK10 rating for mechanical impact resistance .
- Doors and Panels: Equipped with metal doors with locks or transparent covers for visual inspection, ensuring safety and ease of maintenance .
- Internal Components: Standard 35mm DIN rails, bus bars, neutral bars, and earthi...
