

Reseller of QSFP-DD active optical cables

Article Overview

QSFP-DD active optical cables are available from multiple resellers including Proficium, FS.com, USource, and BlueOptics, offering high-speed, OEM-compatible solutions for data centers and enterprise networks.

Recommended Resellers

1. Proficium Proficium offers a wide range of 400G QSFP-DD active optical cables, along with DACs, active copper cables, and fiber optic cables. Their products are OEM-compatible, making them suitable for integration with various network switches and high-speed systems . 2. FS.com FS.com provides 400G QSFP-DD AOCs designed for 400 Gigabit Ethernet links over OM4 multimode fibers. These cables support high data rates up to 53Gb/s per channel, comply with IEEE 802.3cd and QSFP-DD MSA standards, and are optimized for efficient airflow and cable management in high-density racks . 3. USource USource is a manufacturer and reseller of high-speed AOCs in SFP, QSFP, and QSFP-DD form factors, supporting speeds from 10G up to 400G. They offer OEM/ODM services and compatibility with multiple switch brands, making them a flexible option for data center deployments . 4. BlueOptics BlueOptics specializes in 800G QSFP-DD AOCs and DACs, designed for demanding applications in data centers and HPC environments. Their cables provide high reliability, low latency, and plug-and-play installation, with various lengths and configurations to meet specific network requirements .

Key Considerations When Choosing a Reseller

- Compatibility: Ensure the AOC is compatible with your switch or server brand....
