

Where can I buy cable trays conduit

Article Overview

Cable trays and conduits can be purchased from specialized industrial suppliers, electrical distributors, and online retailers offering a wide range of materials, sizes, and configurations.

Online Industrial Suppliers

- DirectIndustry offers a variety of cable trays including ladder, mesh, and vertical trays made from stainless steel, galvanized steel, plastic, and fiberglass. They provide options for indoor and outdoor installations, with perforated or fully closed designs to suit different environments and protection requirements (fire, corrosion, chemical, UV, water) .
- Cabletiesandmore.com provides metal and plastic cable trays that can be wall-mounted or ceiling-suspended. They offer flexible, durable, and easy-to-install systems, including ladder trays, wire mesh trays, and customizable options for fiber optic networks .
- CableOrganizer.com features basket-style, snake trays, and solid or ladder cable trays suitable for overhead or under-floor installations. They cater to both simple and highly customized setups .

Electrical Distributors

- Graybar stocks cable trays and fittings for professional installations. Their catalog includes a variety of sizes and accessories to match specific project requirements, and pricing can be checked by ZIP code .
- Legrand offers Cablofil® wire mesh cable trays, ladder trays, prefab assemblies, a...
